Lettre de recommandation
Cassandra CHALULEAU

I, the under signed Camille Dezarnaulds, Solicitor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, hereby certified Cassandra CHALULEAU, French citizen and Law student worked in my office at 51-53 Spring Street, Sydney Australia, for a period of three months in 2014 and four months during this year.

Cassandra CHALULEAU worked under my supervision and demonstrated an excellent command of the English language and showed herself perfectly capable of preparing legal letters in English.

Whilst in my employment, Cassandra CHALULEAU assisted me in the preparation of a number of cases and in particular a complicated penal case.
She helped me prepare Briefs to Counsel and accompanied me to Court hearings where she assisted me in instructing Counsel.

In addition, Cassandra CHALULEAU carried out general legal research for me especially in relation to the law of negligence involving road accidents, questions of Private International Law and the recognition of Foreign Judgements. Cassandra CHALULEAU showed she was at ease in the presence of clients and was able to discuss complex legal problems with them.

Without doubt, Cassandra CHALULEAU benefited considerably from the time she spent in my office and from her new experience working in a Common law system and perfecting her English legal vocabulary. She leaves my office with my best wishes for the pursuit of her legal carrier.

Yours faithfully

Camille Dezarnaulds,
