

Biography of Chad Widtfeldt

Chad Widtfeldt began his real estate career in 2005, quickly climbing the ranks to become an owner of Regency Real Estate Brokers and leading it to become the top-selling office in Orange County, California. With a sharp eye for growth opportunities, he expanded his operations by partnering with Harcourts Prime Properties in Monarch Beach, Dana Point, overseeing over 50 accomplished agents. His expertise stretches across Southern California, from Santa Barbara to the Mexico border and the Palm Springs area.

He is committed to improving the real estate experience, focusing on a people-first approach that enhances both service quality and company success. He leads the training of the agents in Monarch Beach, significantly impacting many careers with his deep industry knowledge.

Numerous professional accomplishments mark his career. He is the founder and CEO of Green Group, a top-tier real estate team that consistently ranks in the top 1% of agents nationally. His foresight also led to the co-founding of Harcourts Carolinas in 2022, tapping into the fast-growing market of Columbia, South Carolina. This venture has already resulted in several high-producing agents under his leadership, and he is actively investing in numerous local development projects.

He has facilitated the sale of over 1,000 homes, achieving more than $1 billion in total sales. Partnering with Harcourts Auctions, he offers an innovative auction platform, enhancing his service offerings across North America.

Beyond his business achievements, he is deeply involved in philanthropy, with over 13 years dedicated to the Southern California Golden Retriever Rescue. Together with his partner, he supports various charities focused on community aid and cancer research, demonstrating a solid commitment to giving back.

In his personal life, he enjoys time with his wife, Laura, and their two children. Whether playing golf, skiing, or participating in marathons, he values family and leisure. His global upbringing, from Colorado to Hong Kong and Australia, has provided him with valuable cultural insights that enhance his professional interactions.

Chad Widtfeldt is looking forward to celebrating his 20th real estate anniversary soon, reflecting his enduring dedication to the industry. His entrepreneurial spirit remains robust as he continues to explore new trends and opportunities within the real estate sector.
