

Coline Questiaux
Born on 17 January 1996
Belgian
coline.questiaux@gmail.com
+32 (0)478/83.66.94

Willing to become a change maker, I have undertaken several work experiences with success and I am now looking for an internship in an organisation where I can use competencies such as efficiency and critical thinking and develop my communication and organisational skills. As an enthusiastic and proactive person, I enjoy taking up challenges.

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS

CEMS Master in International Management (2017-2019)

Bachelor's in Business: Business Engineering at UCL, Belgium

Women2Women Program with the United States Embassy : leadership and negotiation skills (Harvard Law School); social media (Tufts Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy); Entrepreneurial Thought & Action (Lewis Institute at Babson College), journalism, public speaking and women in government (European Union Parliament)

Training to lead groups of young people during stays abroad and teach interactive courses about world citizenship (with NGO Défi Belgique Afrique)

WORK EXPERIENCE

Augustus 2016: student job as a Management, Sales & Recruitment Assistant by Approach, an IT company.

July 2015 and 2016: student job as a Recruitment assistant by Solvus, consulting agency for GSK.

July-Aug 2015: student job as a Sales assistant in a food business "Charlier Butcher's".

2014-present: member and treasurer of the "kot-à-projet" Kapharnaüm and then Kot Ardoise.

2013-present: voluntary work as a group leader in an NGO Défi Belgique Afrique.

As a group leader, I am in charge of the organisation of cultural exchange stays for 15-to-17-year-old teenagers in developing countries (including training about North-South inequalities in Belgium, fundraising to support our projects, organisation of all activities on site and collaboration with our partner in the field)

LANGUAGES

French: native

Dutch: bilingual proficiency (I studied in Leuven for two months)

English: full professional proficiency (IELTS score 7.5, taken on 11.2.17)

INTERESTS

Leadership and staff management

Sustainability management and social entrepreneurship

International development cooperation and Cultural exchange

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

I pride myself on being well-organised and a self-starter. I am hardworking and reliable, even in charge of a lot of responsibilities.

I am an optimistic and creative person and I like socializing.

IT Skills: high level of competency in MS Word, Excel, Power Point and LinkedIn.