To whom it may concern,

My relationship with Nieves started 10 months ago. She was my English teacher in an academy. Five months later, she became my private tutor as I wanted to boost my English level.

She can be described as an enthusiastic as well as organized teacher who develops deep and inspiring relationships with her students. Her native skills are developed through a variety of games, face-to-face conversations and a wide range of materials to keep me motivated during her lessons.

From the first moment, she helped me to enhance my self-confidence and also to improve my English skills expressing myself without any fear.

She is also involved in my learning process and she keeps up with the latest trends in English teaching.

She is a friendly person, kind hearted and communicative. Furthermore, she is creative and original showing all these abilities driving amusing lessons.

Nowadays, she is very committed to me. She has always helped me to overcome my lacks and has supported me in my decision to pass an English official test. Thanks to her, now, studying English is really gratifying.

I only could say that Nieves is a wonderful person with great initiative and positive attitude capable of struggling with any kind of job or vacancy.

Without reservation, I recommend Nieves to you.

If you have any further question about my arguments, I am completely at your disposal.

Respectfully yours,

Jimena Ortega Solana
