

What people are saying about Monica Jones, Ed.S.

“...highly skilled in defining priorities and managing competing priorities. ... thrives with clear expectations and does not shy away from accountability. ... excels in collecting and extrapolating data. ... forges healthy relationships with stakeholders by involving them in decision-making and maintaining open lines of communication.”

Patricia Byrd, Former Administrator

“... class reflects caring, fairness, respect, and an enthusiasm for learning... actively listens and pays attention to students’ needs and responses... class provides academic rigor and pushes the students to achieve their individual goals.”

Cynthia Jewell, Former Administrator

“...seeks to grow professionally by continually searching for ways to make teaching more child centered, interesting, and fun. She is not a selfish teacher, but one who loves to share the latest, “out of the box” trends relative to teaching.”

Deborah Owens-Pinckney, Former Administrator

“...always displays a passion and desire for impacting the lives of youth who desperately need motivation and guidance to achieve... dedicates her time to insure that students reach the pinnacle of their abilities... shows the initiative to volunteer to help show novice teachers strategies to impact student learning..”

Oredia Marsh, School Counselor

“...excellent rapport with her students... shows a sincere interest in her students as individuals and is consistently fair in dealing with them.”

Kemistri Texada, M. Ed.